“ Dear Family, Jeff and I were very fortunate to call Theresa and Wayne our friends. We will never forget the invite that we got at Christmas to come and dine! The house was beautifully adorned with Christmas everywhere! The food was so delicious; served in stages...appetizers...salads... main entree...and of course, dessert. We had such a good time laughing and enjoying each other. It was our honor and privilege to provide the music at Theresa's homegoing service. Her family honored her today and the Siffords honored her with the music that was played and sung. May our precious Lord comfort each family member! It will not be long until we see Theresa again! To God be the glory for her life and testimony!

“ Theresa was a wonderful Christian and musician. She was the one who introduced me to church hymn playing and choral music singing. I play hymns to this very day and recall chord progressions and styles that she introduced me to so many years ago. She holds a special place in my heart and I know she is singing or playing with the heavenly choir right now. My prayers go out to the Cash family. I pray that the Lord will give you peace and comfort as you navigate the days and weeks ahead.

Theresa and I were good friends in high school but lost touch over the years. I was so happy that we reconnected volunteering together at Carolina Pines. She was the sweetest friend. My heart breaks with all you. She will be missed. Sending love and prayers to each of you.

“ Wayne was pastor for a few years at the little country church I had attended since birth. Theresa was the pianist and choir director. She took that 15-20 member choir and had them sounding like a 50-member choir. Both she and the choir were phenomenal. Family, I am sorry for your loss. Heaven has gained a great Christian lady.
