Tribute Wall

“ Anyone who ever met " Uncle Edwin " had to know he was a very loving & caring man. A kinda quiet & interesting man to say the least. For the biggest part of time we lived a good ways apart, but that did not keep us from loving each other. My dad (James) told us much of his younger days, but I never remember any bad things, only good! They never had any children, but they dearly loved their dogs. He passed without leaving any bad memories just good ones, and these days that says alot! ! ! He is already missed and loved by a lot of people, because he touched so many lives. May the God of the universe help ALL that loved him. Thanks "Uncle Edwin" for leaveing this world "Better than you found it". Mike, Jeannie, Rev. Tonya & Rev.
