He was a member and past deacon of West Hartsville Baptist Church and a member of American Legion Post 53 for 60 years, the longest membership in the post. He was employed his entire career with Sonoco Products Co. and was a member of the Old Timers Club. He was an avid Red Fox fan and Gamecock fan.

Surviving are his nephews and spouses, James and Joyce Ousley of Hartsville, SC, Mike and Patty Ousley of Florence, SC.

Tribute Wall

“ I have known Tom all my life as a charter member of West Hartsville Baptist Church and friend. I also remember well his wonderful mother. He was a very kind hearted person with a love for all people. I know that Jimmy and Mike will truly miss him. May God bless and comfort you in this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Jimmy Ballard##imported-end##
