“ Dear Judy, You and Champ bravely fought to the end....As a mother, I can only imagine the pain you went through watching your child fight this disease..I pray for your peace and comfort, but also knowing Champ is no long hurting and is free from his crippling body will some how give you rest....He is in God's loving Hands now. You gave your absolute best and love to him, as a mother would do.

Much love to you, Terri Woodham

The first thing that came to min tonight when I heard of this was that "CHAMP WAS A CHAMP" and now he can rest in peace without pain for the first time in a very long time! Champ was loving, caring, highly intelligent and a real "Hoot of a Comedian"! He was handsome and charismatic, too! He had a great sense of humor therefore, he could and would always make you laugh when you thought you were there to pick him up! All Fear Is Gone now, Champion....and now it's time for Judy to rest here, too! God be with you always because I know we will see you again some day. I loved you and enjoyed watching you grow into a Beautiful, God Fearing sweet man! You showed us all that only God knows when our time is up!
