“ *My deepest condolences for Catherine during this difficult time, my prayers are with you each day. Thomas was a good and holy man and a good friend. I have been blessed to have known him and his faith helped inspire mine. We were all fortunate to be together this past Sunday for a meal and there was a place set for him. I will pray for his soul and I thank him for the prayers for my son that he offered on his behalf. He will be greatly missed.

I extend my condolences. Thomas is an excellent fellow, and I will continue to pray for the repose of his soul. I count it a great privilege to have accompanied him on his faith journey during his last few years. His faith was truly inspiring.

May the angels lead him into paradise May the martyrs come to welcome him on his way
