Surviving are her husband, Gabe Newsome of Hartsville, SC; sons, Pierce, Preston, and Price Newsome, all of Hartsville, SC; father and mother of Hartsville, SC; sister, Monica Bailey of Savannah, GA; brother, Russ Bailey of Columbia, SC. She was preceded in death by her grandmother, Myrtle "Granny" Adams. She was also preceded in death by her grandparents Robert Adams and Mr. & Mrs. William Bailey.

“ Gabe, Ms.sybil,Mrs.Doris and the rest of the family: How heavy can a heart be? Only God knows for sure. I am so happy that I was able to know Tia! She shared in my excitement in helping children across the world. Our family goes on yearly mission trips to the Dominican Republic. When I told Tia I needed clothes for children she was more than happy to help out. I didn't get to see my friend in her last months but I know that she thought of me because a few weeks ago my Angel Tia had a good week and she cleaned out the boys closets and when I came home my bench on my porch was filled with love from Tia. Until the end she thought of others. I talked with her that night,little did I know that my friend was telling me goodbye! I know that she is just beautiful in heaven. One day maybe she will meet some of the children she has helped in the Dominican. She has a crown full of jewels!!!! She will be missed!!!
You know I am here!

“ I am so very sorry. Tia was a such a special person. She just lit up the room with her energy and smile. I feel she lived a life time in her short 40 years. She and I are the same age. We have been friends since we were very young and I have never heard her say a negative thing about anyone or to anyone. What a testimony. She never thought of herself as better than anyone, and she was very approachable and friendly to everyone she met. I know the Lord has blessed her and she has had more love and happiness than most experience in a lifetime of living on this earth. This is because she didn't live for self, but for the Lord by giving of herself for others. She was so caring and compassionate. And I just believe if she could tell us now, she would say that she wouldn't change a thing. Especially the time spent with her boys at home instead of an outside job. The time with her husband, and the times with her family. The Tuesday night pizza hut family night traditions, and all the times just being herself and making sweet memories. I remember many times when I have been sick over the years, Tia would bring food, flowers, and cards to my house. She was precious. I am happy to know for sure, I will see my friend again. Dear family, please know I love you and am praying for you, without ceasing. God bless you and strengthen you with His mighty arm over the next weeks and months. Tia will never be forgotten, and will always be loved.##imported-begin##Pam Murray##imported-end##

“ Newsome and Bailey family, I can not begin to tell you how sorry I am at the loss of Tia. I only met her briefly when her daddy was in the hospital in Florence after his accident years ago. My thoughts and prayers will be with all of you at this time. I know our precious Lord will be with all of you and comfort you. Tia is now a beautiful angel and suffering no more. Remember the good times. In Christ, Pat James##imported-begin##Pat James##imported-end##

“ Gabe, Boys and Entire Family
Words can't express the way we feel. Tia has been one of the greatest joys we have had the honor to have come into our lives since we became a part of Kelleytown Baptist Church. God places some people in our lives for a reason and I'm so glad she was in ours. To know her was only to love her and we did. We loved you all. May God give each of you comfort and piece. May you feel his love all around you. We will see her again that is the promise we have in the Lord. God BLess##imported-begin##Brenda and Skeeter Bailey##imported-end##

“ Doris, Sonny, Monica, Russ, Gabe and boys. Our heartfelt love and sympathy to each if you. Even though our paths have not crossed as often as they use to, please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you. Tia was a special person and I know that she will be truly missed. I know that we do not understand why she was taken at such an important time in her life, but I know that God does have a plan, even though we may not see it now. Love to you all.

“ Gabe, Pierce, Preston, Price, Mr.Bailey, Mrs. Doris, Monica, and Russ,

My heart aches for you. I know there is comfort that she is with our loving Saviour but I also know that you miss her immensely. Tia was a wonderful friend to me in high school. I cherish those memories. Our contact was sporadic in the recent years as I live in Florence and we were both involved in our family's lives. When our paths crossed, it was always fun and exciting to "catch" up with each other and share "our families" with each other. Please know that I will continue to pray for you and will think of you often. When I think of Tia, I will cherish the scripture, Phil. 1:3, "I thank my God upon every remembrance of you."

Love and prayers,
