

Mr. Timothy Dewayne Self

December 17, 1973 - October 23, 2025

Timothy "Timmy" Dewayne Self, 51, affectionately known as "Doughboy" by his many friends, entered into rest on October 23, 2025. The Directors of Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home & Crematory are caring for the family.

A memorial service will be held at 3 o'clock on Sunday, November 9, 2025, in The Chapel of Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home, with The Rev. Russell Gianey officiating. The family asks that if you'd like to share some words about Timmy, please write them out to be shared during the service. The family will receive friends immediately following the service.

Timmy was born in Hartsville, SC, on December 17, 1973, and was a beloved father, son, brother, and friend whose warmth touched the lives of many. His nickname "Doughboy" reflected not only his jovial spirit but also the affection others felt for him. He was known for his unwavering loyalty to his family and friends.

Timmy worked as an engine rebuilder for W.C. Scarborough Engine Rebuilders, where he poured his heart into every engine he restored. His passion for fast cars and drag racing never faltered. The roar of engines and the pulse of loud rock music were the rhythms that defined Timmy's world—bold, passionate, and full of life.

He is survived by his father, David Self (Marion); his daughter, Brooke Boles; his granddaughter, McKenna Harrison; and his sisters, Linda McCaskill (Darryl) and Candee Brown Utt (Fred).

In addition to his mother, Maxine Cozart Self, he was preceded in death by his brothers, William Leroy Self, Clint Justin Self, Luke Benjamin Thompson, and Stacy Lee Thompson.

Though he may be gone, Timmy's legacy lives on in the engines he rebuilt, the lives he touched, and the memories he leaves behind. He will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered.

"I was down, but now I'm flying
Straight across the great divide
I know you're crying, but I'll stop you crying
When I see you, I'll see you on the other side."
- Ozzy Osbourne

“ Timmy will be missed by his family who was with him to the very end. He got to enjoy having both of his grandsons there. Then he was taken from them. Not even able to say goodbye. Nobody has bothered to ask what happened. It's truly sad! Rest in Peace Timmy!

I remember Timmy from elementary school. I would like to know what happened but it seems rude to do so.
