“ Uncle Todd,

I want you to know that I love you... I know I told you but I didnt get to tell you before you passed. I know that your at the gates of heaven with granddaddy and your mama and I know that you are enjoying yourselves. I still really cant believe that your gone, I keep waiting for you to walk in the door and tell me what I need to straighten up or change some things. You have always been like my 2nd daddy and I know that you loved me just like I was your own. I am going to miss going on vacations to the mountains and the beach and even simple things like eating dinner on sunday at grandmas house. Rylee misses you and we told her that you were asleep and went to heaven. You were so speacial to me and her. You always were such a big hearted person. I know that I will see you again someday and I cant wait untill I can wrap my arms around you and give you a big hug. Life wont be the same without you here. I think we all take stuff for granted but I know now that I will never go a day without seeing my family members and everytime I leave I will give them a hug, a kiss, and tell them that I love them. Everytime I get into the car I hear a song that reminds me of you and right now is the hardest thing that the family has to go through. I was small when granddaddy passed but now I dont know what the family is going to do because I really dont know how our family is going to make it without you. I know GOD will send us peace but I know that your up there looking down on us and Im trying to keep it together. I swear to you that I will be here for Aunt Pam and Blake and Bailey. Right now Im sitting over here and I just want to comfort them but I know that the only thing that can comfort them is GOD. Uncle Todd for the people that didnt know you I just want to let them know that you were truly unique and I wouldnt have had it any other way. I keep thinking about me and you going to columbia to try out for deal or no deal :) waiting eight hours in the line and then somebody cut in front of us. Me and you both kept bragging about how we were going to get called back to be on the show. Well uncle Todd I love you and I will never forget the love that you have for me and the whole family. I LOVE YOU and I know that you are at peace.
