“ I am so sorry to read about Tracy's death. My prayers of condolences are for Brenda and his entire family. I have many fond memories of Tracy with our family as he was a nephew of my late father-in-law, "Buddy" Levi Odom. I will always cherish the happy thoughts I have of Thanksgiving dinners with Tracy's mother, Eunice, and her sisters Fern, Betty and Nora Emma. Also sharing in this family "reunion" was Tracy's brother, Charles Lide, and his wife, Peggy. The Thanksgiving feast was usually at Aunt Fern and Uncle Charlie's home in Lamar, and none of us ever left her dining table hungry! All the delicious food and the laughter which filled the air, was wonderful; yet the most important thing, no matter what the occasion, was their love for one another, which was extended to everyone who was blessed to know them, and I was blessed to be a recipient as well. May God give you His Comfort and Peace. With love. Jacqueline Ludrick (Gainey) Chambers
