“ I have so many fond memories of Aunt Trisha. I loved to spend the week ins with them. Aunt Trisha pierced my ears for me, with a needle, thread, and alcohol, that's it! Uncle Charles let me drive him to the service station when I first got my license. I'd keep Debra and John Wayne while they would go out and I would dust all her salt and pepper shakers and everything else. I loved being there.

Our Mom, Gladys Pierce, was not able to attend the service. However, she wanted us to express her deepest sympathy to the family. Sorry we did not have an opportunity to tell you this yesterday. Uncle Charles was Mom's little brother. We will continue to have you all in our prayers.
