“ Which one do I share? As hardeaded as this man was there was never a dull moment. With God on his shoulders the only thing he feared was the Lord himself. He always made it known he was ready when the Lord was ready. He would share Bible passages with you and lift your spirit when you were down. Giving the shirt off his back and a helping hand was what this man was all about as well as family. He worked until he couldn't physically work anymore. His stories were inspirational and amazing. Glad I had the privilege of knowing this man and his family. Until we meet again Pa Shorty!
