“ I am very sorry about your loss. I met your mom at the auction sale in Pine Ridge several years ago and always enjoyed seeing her and talking with her there. I am Jake Johnson's daughter too and know many of your people. I have fond memories of your uncle Pete Hicks as we too sold peaches and produce as a family for many years. May God's sweet peace and abiding love fill this void in your hearts.
In Christ,

“ Wallace Family: I am so sorry to hear of Ms. Vera Lee's passing. I am Jake Johnson's daughter that used to come to her home when her appliances were on the blink. She was always so humble and kind. To her children, I know your hearts are so heavy and you feel a great emptiness, but know this, just as my daddy lives in my heart, your mom will always live in your hearts. Daddy told me before he died that no one could ever take that away! And even though he's no longer here, he is my Shining Star! I can feel his presence everyday. Keep her real and never forget that she's not really gone, just better now. You are all in my thoughts!
