“ There are no words to express what our sweet Jennie meant to me. At my lowest she was there to comfort me and celebrated my victories. We joked that she was my sister and Blake my brother-in-law. Going to miss you but will see you again on the other side. Love you forever sis. ❤️👍

“ Jennie was not only my first cousin; she was my good friend & more like a sister. We had so many memories it’s hard to write just one. After I moved to Kentucky we didn’t see each other as much but we were always close no matter where each of us lived. She knew & I knew we always could call on the other. Distance & time will never change that. I lived with her once for several months. She was a very special person & Blake was the love of her life. Praying for her family. Til we meet again...RIP.
