“ *Just a little trouble Wayne and me got into.
We were going to the cad school in Columbia and staying there while we taking classes.
The had a nurse on call to take care of us.
She had brought a big bag of peanut M & M 's and put them in a bowl for everybody. Wayne and I, took the bowl to our table to play cards. We ended up eating the whole bowl of M & M's. The nurse got on to us and Wayne told her that she should have bought for more than one person. We all laughed together.
Wayne would take any circumstance and find the good in it. When Wayne and I would get together, my, stomach would hurt for 2 days from laughing. Wayne was a big part of my life and will be deeply missed. I know for sure that he can walk now, but, you would never be able to tell that he couldn't. I will see him again along with my daughter, Andrea, until then watch over everybody that we love.
Robert, your Brother*

“ Wayne was a wonderful, kind man. He always had a sweet smile on his face that made his eyes shine. He and Gayle were always good to our family and our children, (who are now grown) think the world of him.

R.I.P our dear friend. May you run with the Angels now.
