“ Dear Janice & W.L.
I don't know what to say except my heart goes out to you. We have been friends for so long and our children played together. This does not seem possible. Just remember all the good times. Also put your faith and trust in the Lord, he will get you through this. I am here for both of you. You might just need someone to listen or to hold your hand when you cry. Please just call me at anytime (857-4304). If there is anything you need just let me know. My prayers are with you and your family. Heath is with our Heavenly Father now. There will be no more pain or sickness. Love in Christ.##imported-begin##Sheila Brown##imported-end##

“ What a precious young man our Heath was. Such a sweet personality and a subtle humor that made you want to hug him. Every year at our reunion, at some point during the day, he would come to me and say, "Hey Aunt Polly, I'm here." I can't be with you all today to honor Heath but my prayers, my thoughts and my deep love for you are.##imported-begin##Polly O. Smith##imported-end##
