“ Craig, Erick, Derrick and the entire family, daddy and I are so very sorry for the loss of Uncle Billy. It's hard to imagine him actually being my cousin. As we were growing up, Dennis and Donna were the same age, Drinda and Craig were about the same age and me and Erick and Derrick were the same age. Almost every single day we were either at yalls house or yall were at ours. It always seemed fitting that it was Uncle Billy and Aunt Patsy. I love yall so much still today as always. My heart aches for each of yall. Our thoughts and prayers are with yall.

“ So sorry for the loss of Bill. He was a good friend of mine. I knew Bill from PineRidge auction. We had some good times cutting up and picking at each other in our little group. He was a pleasure to know him. Sending prayers to the sons.
