“ Clara, I just learned of Bill’s passing. So glad that he had you by his side for all these years. I don’t think that I have heard either his name or yours mentioned since high school days without a picture coming up in my mind of the both of you together. I know that you will miss him and my heart goes out to you. Chuck Luther

“ Clara & family,
I am very very sorry for your loss. Bill was a wonderful person and friend from the time we met in Little League Baseball and all through High School. We had some really good times and all sorts of things growing up in Hartsville and making music with both of you with our trombones. May the warmth and peace of the Holy Spirit comfort you during this very difficult time.

I am a friend of Marian and she has kept me up on Bill. He certainly was a trooper. She also told me how wonderful you have been in his care. I will think of you often in the days head.*
