“ My dad Oliver Shumake worked at Hartsville Ice and Fuel from 1937 until he became disabled in 1956. Bill was a dear friend and made sure my Mom and Dad had a place to live rent free after daddy' retirement. He was a caring man and my family will never forget him.

“ Saddens me to hear about the passing of Mr. Timberlake. He was instrumental in helping Rev. TJ James start Mt. Pisgah Presbyterian Church. He was always concerned about our church and Mr. Foster Jackson in particular.

“ Growing up on Kenwood Drive in Hartsville back in the 60's and 70's was such fun! All the neighborhood kids would get together and play at the football field at the Timberlake's house. Us girls would cheer and the boys would play. I will always remember the Dinner Bell the Timberlakes would ring and we all knew it was time to go home. Mr Timberlake and Ms. Olive were always there if any of us kids needed help. Mr Timberlake was a truly wonderful person and would always help those in need. He and Ms. Olive were an inspiration to many of us! He will be greatly missed by so many. My thoughts and prayers are with the family as they go through this difficult time.

“ Bill was special as a role model and friend. He was also my "in law" cousin who always filled in my faulty relative memory. He was in a gentlemanly class by himself and always was family first, hence the role model His time with us will be remembered by me and many, and the angels are singing well done good and faithful servant. “ Uncle Bill was timeless to me. Probably because I spent more time around him as a child. I remember breakfasts that were always delicious, fun and included prayers of thankfulness along with study of The Bible. He was a man of God who walked the talk. My heart goes out to Aunt Olive, Mary Alice, Trisha and Crawford, along with the 'Outlaws', all the grand kids and the new great-grand babies.

“ Carl Hinnant III greatest memory of Uncle Bill is he thought me how to shake hands the right way, a firm grip and look them in the eyes. He also showed me the importance of daily devotions every day. I loved my uncle Bill. Lit a candle in his honor.
