“ I remember going over to the house to visit Miriam for the first couple of times back in the early 90's. I was curious to know about the portrait hanging in the sitting room. He would proudly fill me in on the family history. I enjoyed the story! But I think Miriam was even more proud because she would fill in the details he left out:-) I think Miriam got her love for history from her daddy and He will be missed.

Condolences to the family of Mr. Egleston. May the God of comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) provide you the strength to endure your loss. Death is never something we get use to because our God Jehovah never intended humans to experience death. However, he has provided a hope for us to see our dead loved ones again through the resurrection, because he has promised at Acts 24:15, "there is going to be a resurrection." We can be assured of his promises because he is a God who "cannot lie" (Titus 1:2). You may find answers to questions such as "what happens when we die," "where are the dead," "will suffering ever end," etc., at web www.jw.org. Or you may contact me at ecarter2054@att.net.
