

Rev. William Marvin Griggs III

March 17, 1959 - October 28, 2025

It is with deep sorrow that Mrs. Marlene Gainey Griggs and her family announce the death of her beloved husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and devoted servant of God, The Reverend William Marvin Griggs III, 66.

Rev. Griggs went home to be with his Lord and Savior on Tuesday, October 28, 2025. The Directors of Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home & Crematory are caring for the family.

A funeral service to honor his life will be held at 2 o'clock on Sunday, November 2, 2025, at the Darlington Church of God of Prophecy. Bishop Richard Martin and Sis. Tabitha Marshall will officiate with burial to follow at Mt. Olivet Baptist Church Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 5:00 pm until 7:00 pm on Saturday, November 1, 2025, at the funeral home.

Memorials may be made in his honor to the Darlington Church of God of Prophecy, 920 W. Smith Avenue, Darlington, SC 29532.

Rev. Griggs was born on Tuesday, March 17, 1959, in Hartsville, SC. He is the son of the late Hubert Wilford Griggs and the late Iris Winburn Griggs. In 1976, he met the love of his life, Marlene Gainey, and in 1978, they became one as they pledged their love before God and man. They built a home with two children, Tabitha and Matthew Griggs. Married for 47 years and 8 months, they worked side by side, their love for one another never wavering.

Pastor Griggs was a mechanic by trade, and in 1977, he began working as a tow motor mechanic at Klopmon in Society Hill, SC, where he held this job for nineteen and a half years. In 1978, he was saved by the grace of God, and in 1980, he responded to God's call to preach the gospel. He pastored Trinity Congregation Church in Rockingham, NC, Pine Ridge Church of God of Prophecy, Shiloh Church of God of Prophecy, Home Branch Church of God of Prophecy, Pleasant Grove Church of God of Prophecy. He filled in for several months at Mel's Chapel in Bishopville, SC, and served at his present church, Darlington Church of God of Prophecy. He also worked at Discount Auto Parts with his lifelong friends, Mark and Deb Lunn. He retired from there in 2024 after almost fourteen years.

Pastor Griggs was humble, compassionate, and never met a stranger. Those who knew him will remember his infectious smile and overwhelming laughter, as well as his deep-rooted faith in Jesus Christ and his passion for preaching God's word.

May each one remember his unwavering commitment to spread love, hope, and kindness to everyone God placed in his life. He had a gift for making others laugh, leaving a lasting impression on those he met on this journey called life. He loved having fun and was a comedian in his own right.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Hubert and Iris Griggs, and sister-in-law, Joanne Griggs.

He is survived by his wife, Marlene Gainey Griggs; daughter, Tabitha G. Faile; son, William Matthew Griggs (Kailey); grandchildren, Robert Austin Faile, Roland Connor Faile, Dawson Griggs (Bekka), Payton Griggs (Taylor), Heidi

Griggs, Gabe Griggs, Rowan Griggs, great-grandchildren, Samuel Matthews, Waylon Matthews, and soon to be great-grandchild Marvin Sturgill Griggs; brother, Wilford Griggs; sisters, Ivy Blue, Lisa McKenzie (Robert); special sister-in-laws, Wilma Gainey Yarborough, Sara Purvis, Carolyn Dixon, Debra Gainey; special brother-in-laws, Dennis Gainey, and Robert McKenzie; and numerous nieces and nephews who he loved very much.

“ Now its my time to tell of the wonderful man you were. You were everything our little family needed you to be and then some. You were always ready to help whether it be family or a stranger, it didn't matter. You had all of us a little spoiled,okay a lot spoiled, but you loved spoiling us especially me, your diamond. We had a great life together, a great marriage, i wouldn't change a thing. You have been my life from the time we started dating until your death on October 28th, 2025. There will never be another you another me, our love was one of a kind and I believe it was totally ordained by God himself. I know you are happy and healed, but my heart is still human and I miss you so much and my love for you will never falter, it will remain and I will always I mean i will always love you. I loved you yesterday, I'll love you tomorrow and I still love you today. Until we meet again I'll be missing you 💔💔💔

It's been over three months and I'm still missing you, my heart is broken over losing you. I knew how to live with you, but I don't know how to live without you. I'm so glad we had almost fifty years together and I will always love you. No one could ever take your place. God threw away the pattern when he made you and I'm so glad he gave you to me. I miss you so much and I love you forever with all my heart. Until we meet again in Heaven, I'll hold on to the memories we made and the wonderful life we shared. Love you, still with a broken  Love always your wife

“*Marvin, it's our first Thanksgiving with you and Daddy it is very hard to find the way to make it through this day without y'all. I have prayed that God will help us to get through this day. I miss you so much but I know you are with our Lord and Savior. I love and miss you Little Brother  *”

“ So many memories baby brother, all of them good. You were more than a brother in-law to Sara, Carolyn and myself. God knew we three would need you when our lives did not go the way we thought they would. I can't wrap my head around the fact that you aren't in Byrdtown anymore, you aren't here to call and ask for prayer. It's already so hard thinking of you not being here when we go down to be in church with y'all. The 5 Musketeers are now down to 4, our Saturday trips and beach vacations won't be the same. Mama is celebrating her seventh year in heaven, how she, daddy, Phillip, Kenny, Phyllis, Robert Lee and pa Jay must have smiled when they saw you. We will keep on having Sissy's back like you always had ours. Until we meet again little brother, we will keep on keeping on for our heavenly Father. Enjoy that crystal sea and dance on those streets of gold. Already missing you and will love you forever until we meet again. We will see you when we get there. You got your miracle. 💔💔🙏

Heaven is a little more glorious with such a wonderful example of how to truly be living for Him. Mr. Marvin was always a angel, he's just continuing to protect his cherished family from his eternal home. Ms. Marlene, the love & devotion between you two has always been unmistakably obvious the moment anyone saw the way he always looked at you. I know without a doubt Mr. Marvin will be first one at Heaven's gate, with the same unmistakable loving gaze as always, & arms embracing you again. Cling to the reunification. “ There was never a dull moment in being around such a precious friend in Christ, I never realized how Marlene could put up with him, but she did. I met Him and Marlene at the Former Pine Ridge CH Church when JC Hollinsworth was the pastor. Through the years we fellowsipped through the Elgin Campground. He always had a smile on his face and would always greet you no matter where it was at. Darlington COGOP has lost a great Pastor, Mentor and Friend. I also remembered when he pastored the Pine Ridge COGOP years ago as well. If my mind serves me right. Marlene You have lost a great Husband, Matthew and Tabitha yall have lost an amazing Father. The Griggs family,we are heart broken for the loss of Marvin,he will be missed but always loved . He always had a joke coming out of his mouth, I know without a doubt he's at the side of God. We love you all and we're still praying for you all in this difficult time.

“ So sorry to hear of Marvin's passing. He was such a sweet man. We grew up with him and he was always kind and a pleasure to be around. Even when we would see him and Marlene out at other places he always had a smile on his face. He will be greatly missed. We are praying for Marlene and his family and all who loved him. We know he is in the presence of the Lord now. Rick and Debbie Dutton

Sister Marlene my heart breaks on one side to hear of the passing of Bro Marvin but the other side rejoices in the fact he has heard those words “Well done thou good and faithful servant” I remember the years we pastored in Hartsville and then when y'all came to Coward and pastored and the fellowship we had eating at the lake city hospital on sundays for lunch. always enjoyed hearing y'all sing and Bro Marvin playing the guitar know that we love y'all and you and the family will be in our thoughts and prayers - preacher Becky

“ To my sweet dear friends and family, We are so sorry to hear of a Great Loss. Praying that God will give you the strength and comfort during this time and peace in the days to come. I remember all of the laughter and chats me, him and Marlene would have everytime we seen each other, no matter where we were they shared the love of God and their sweet family and we could talk forever about our families. He was a great friend and one in millions, just like his sweet wife. We love yall and if yall need anything please let us know ❤️ Eddie and Marie Gardner ❤️

“ Sis. Marlene, Tabitha, Matthew and family, We are so sorry for your loss. Bro. Marvin, wasn't just a special, close friend. He was family!! I am going to miss my "Happy Birthday from him. As we shared the same birthday as he was 14 years older than me!! He was a great pastor, when we had him at Home Branch Church of God of Prophecy. We had a privilege of making good memories with him, Sis. Marlene and the family!! May GOD wrap HIS ARMS around YOU and your family and comfort you all!! Save a seat for us!! Rest in peace, Bro. Marvin!! Until we meet again!!! Love always, Sis. Meri, Bro. Will, Lindsey and Kayla Marlene we are so sorry for your Loss. Marvin was a great man, He was so loved by so many. I know that this is a terrible Loss to you and the kids and anyone that knew him. The day we came to see him I remember him telling Kenny "I am a winner either way if I go or if I stay'. Marvin is with the Lord now. Its the ones left behind that hurt the most because they have to live in a world without him. God and the love you shared will get you thru. If you or the kids need anything we are a phone call away. we love you all.

*So sorry to hear this. Brother Marvin was one of the very best Pastors I ever listened to. (Sister wasn't too far behind) I grew to love them in no time flat. As they were of the finer people you will ever meet. Sorry I did not hear this in time to come to the funeral, just know that you are in my prayers. I pray; God, will wrap his arms of love, Pease, and comfort around you all That he will keep you safe forever more. Love you all.
