“ It's sad knowing the last of our parents are now gone. They were all kind, interesting, down-to-earth people who unconditionally loved and supported their children. When we think of Uncle Howard, we remember his love of fishing and delivering Meals on Wheels. May we all stay in touch and continue to share with one another and pass on our many stories of both laughter and tears. Our love always.###imported-begin##Brenda, Jackie, Frankie###imported-end##
