“ To all of the family I offer my deepest condolences. Doc was a unique man and in earliest memories he has always been a rich part of our community. Death is never easy even when we know that our loved one is at peace and no longer suffering. With time and the grace of God your hearts will ease and your loss will be blind in with the great memories that each of you have of Doc. Find comfort in knowing that each of you is in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Brian Gandy##imported-end##

“ Doc,

You will truly be missed. Thanks for being a good Friend to my Dad, my family and the entire Byrdtown community. It was always nice to see you come into the store and always nice to see your truck moving around the community, just kinda looking after things. You are a very successful man, just look at the fine Family that you have! Tell everyone in Heaven hello and we miss them, I know you'll be there because you have a Heart of Golden Goodness!
