A. Mazingo of Bishopville, SC, Sidney Mazingo of Sumter, SC; grandchildren, Renee Loflin, Rhonda Brown, Christel Copeland, Charles "Chuck" Traweek, Sharon Hudson; 9 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by two grandchildren, Tom Copeland and Joni Hodge.

The family appreciates the love and tender care given to their mother during her days of illness.

Tribute Wall

“ I am the granddaughter of Mary Lena Manship-McElveen and daughter of Geraldine McElveen-Jabra. I have fond memories of Aunt Willie and will miss her. My last memory of Aunt Willie C was about 5 years ago. Grandma and Mom came to visit me in NC and we drove to SC to visit Aunt Willie C. I accidentally set off the alarm in her kitchen...I pulled a cord I thought was for the light but it happened to be for the alarm....it was so loud and I was afraid it would wake the neighborhood and they would think something was wrong so I grabbed a chair and found a pillow and stood trying to muffle the sound. We were all laughing hysterically, because no one new how to turn it off!##imported-begin##Tania Pujol James##imported-end##

“ Dear Wanda, Nora Lee, and Ann, Please know how sorry I am to learn of your loss. Your mother lived and long, fruitful life, and you must be very thankful for that. Even so, the grief that comes when losing a parent is still to be contended with, so I will be praying for you and all of your family during this difficult time. In His love and with deep sympathy and compassion, Rachel###imported-begin###Rachel Adams Doyle Medlin###imported-end##

“ To the Family,

Mrs. Manship watch over my children every morning and afternoon. I know she will continue to watch from her new home in heaven. She was loved greatly and will be missed my our neighborhood. As the birds sing each morning I will think of her as I remember her sweet face looking out across the yard as the children were sent off to school. Her loving grace and sweet silent prayers that she gave each day for them. I will always remember and be thankful for the privilege of knowing a wonderful, sweet, and God lead woman. Heaven is lucky to have her now even though we are sad.

Our family will keep all of you in our prayers and memories.
