

Mr. Zachary Scott Bedenbaugh

May 17, 1990 - October 22, 2022

It is with deep sorrow that Natalie and Scott Bedenbaugh announce the death of their son, Zachary Scott on October 22, 2022, Zachary Scott Bedenbaugh “Zack”, loving father of two beautiful girls, Avery and Jurney, and friend of many - passed away at the age of 32 (May 17, 1990).

Born to Scott and Natalie Bedenbaugh of Hartsville, SC. Zack and his younger brother Josh Bedenbaugh grew up surrounded by lots of aunts, uncles, and cousins. Through the years, Zack enjoyed time with his children and family, and making friends wherever he went. At a young age Zack knew he wanted to be a dad and found great purpose and joy, through the challenge of that role with his daughters Avery (6) and Jurney (3). Zack was authentically and wholeheartedly there for those in his life. One of his most recent joys was becoming an uncle to a precious niece, Olive Moon Bedenbaugh.

Zack enjoyed fishing, music of all kinds, and watching movies. Zac was an animal lover. He enjoyed learning about new hobbies. He was always planning his next project. In his final days he spent quiet and quality time with his parents as they attended to his care. This provided Zack an opportunity to reflect and confirm his faith through the many friends who had the privilege to have personal and intimate talks and prayers with him.

Zack was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents Johnny and Carolyn Newsom, and paternal grandparents Judith Bedenbaugh Talbert (CV) and Bill Bedenbaugh (Anna).

In his memory, donations can be made to his gofundme account: click here (<https://www.gofundme.com/f/zack-bedenbaugh-medical-and-everyday-bills?qid=089b636cc8de222545c2a2303ea7cc65>)

A Celebration of Life Service will be held on Tuesday, October 25, 2022 in the Chapel of Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home with the Rev. Trey Watkins officiating. The family will receive friends following the service.
